NOTES

1	Affiliation	To ensure all members who ride on the public highway have adequate insurance cover, it is required that they are members of either the BCF or CTC at all times, and provide evidence on first joining and on renewal.
2	Membership	Membership spans a calendar year. Any member that has not renewed membership by the end of February is deemed to have resigned. Renewals after this date will be treated as new applications and will incur a joining fee.
3	Joining fee	Social members and junior members are exempt from paying the joining fee.
4	Claim	A cyclist may be a member of more than one club, but can be a first claim member of only one. The rider can only race on the road under the name of their first claim. All other memberships are second claim.
5	Half-year membership	New members joining in the club after the 30 th June will only be required to pay half of the annual subscription fees for that year. Where a new member joins late in the year, the Membership Secretary has the discretion to waive the annual membership renewal fee for the following year.
6	Social members	Social members are defined as non-riding members who attend club nights on less than 12 occasions per year.
7	Family members	All family members are obliged to show proof of CTC/BC insurance if they intend to ride with the Club. Each family member's detail should be submitted on separate forms, which should be submitted together.
